EVALUATION AND GRADING

Portfolio Review

100%

GRADING

Assignments will be graded using a combination of technical execution, aesthetic value and creative risk-taking in relation to the objectives/guidelines given. These guidelines will be given at the beginning of each assignment. Because creative process is an emergent process, the objectives of the assignment may start off as open-ended and gain clarity through the process of making, one-on-one conversations with the instructor as well as group critiques.

From the YSU Undergraduate Bulletin:

A represents exceptional work in which the student shows that he or she has firmly grasped and achieved the objectives of the course.

B indicates very good work and considerable grasp of the essentials of the course.

C indicates good work and a usable grasp of the essentials of the course.

D indicates a definite, but not necessarily coherent, knowledge of the course.

F indicates that the student has not achieved even a minimum grasp of the essentials of the course.

LOST WORK

Lost work is viewed as work not completed. Protect all work with great care.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance (watching demos, completing assignments on time, etc.) is mandatory due to the participatory structure of the course. Come with your supplies and ready to work.

If you are encountering problems meeting deadlines, contact the instructor as soon as possible to create a potential solution together, if possible. If you know you will need to miss class ahead of time, please let the instructor know beforehand to create a plan more any missed work.

YSU Attendance Policy: addresses excused absences for participation in university-sponsored events, government-related activities, religious observances, death of a family member, and documented personal illness. If you are in a situation that fits this, please get in touch with me via email immediately so we may start working together to devise a plan.
